

#BalanceforBetter – Online Campaign for International Women’s Day (08.03.2019)

The future is exciting. Everyone has a role to play in creating a better and gender-balanced world. However, to date, no country in the world has achieved real equality for women and girls. The struggle goes on! Every year, International Women Day (08th March), gives us the chance to celebrate and honour worldwide struggle for achieving women’s rights.

Eine Welt Netzwerk Thüringen wants to use this occasion, to unite against gender-based discrimination and highlight as well as amplify the voices, collective struggles and engagement of those, who are making a consistent effort towards achieving gender equality across the world. We are embarking on a year-long campaign, #BalanceforBetter (part of an international campaign, more info on this link) wherein, with the help of our online and offline platforms and resources, we want to share inspiring stories of people around the world, who are doing their bit to shape and create a gender-balanced world.

If you want to tell the world about your fight against gender-based discrimination, this is your chance! Help us narrate your stories to the global audience. Increasing grassroots activism and world-wide movements signal towards a brimming change, where people around the world refuse to accept the status quo. They engage themselves for a just and better world. Remember women’s right is a human rights issue.

The struggle should continue to shape and achieve a gender balanced work-environment, governments, communities, economies, media etc. Every bit you do, counts!

Do you want to contribute towards building a balanced world? Step forward and send us your contributions (Hands out balance pose) and a brief text (100-150 words) that throws light upon the exciting work you have done/ or are doing to achieve gender equality at p.singh@ewnt.org
